

Diseases don't respect borders

If you bring in meat or dairy products from outside the EU*, you risk importing animal diseases.

If you do not declare such items, you may be fined or face criminal prosecution.

These products will be seized and destroyed on arrival.

*If you travel between the Member States of the European Union, Andorra, Iceland, Liechtenstein, United Kingdom (Northern Ireland), Norway, San Marino or Switzerland, you may bring products of animal origin in your luggage. Arrivals from the Faroe Islands or from Greenland: not more than 10 kg in your luggage. Arrivals from parts of the United Kingdom other than Northern Ireland (England, Wales, Scotland) are subject to normal procedures and veterinary controls.
