

ENSURING FURTHER PROGRESS OF SPS AND FOOD SAFETY SYSTEM IN GEORGIA

PROJECT PROGRESS

Completed

- Development of monitoring and surveillance programs for priority plant pests
- Training schemes for Plant Protection Products professional users, distributors and advisors
- Preparation of specifications for Phytosanitary Information system modules
- Pest risk analysis
- Development of risk-based national monitoring plan
- Training of veterinary, food safety and phytosanitary border inspectors
- Establishment of the fee levels
- Veterinary bio-security measures introduced
- Development of epidemiological surveillance programs
- Development of reporting systems

Ongoing

- Training for approval and control of plant protection products
- Risk based planning of Official controls
- Development of GE national legal acts for adoption
- Development of zoonosis monitoring programs
- Strengthening of implementation of hygiene and safety standards in primary production
- Improvement of official controls in area of primary production
- Review of SOPs for border control

Ready to start

- Development of plant passporting system
- Cost-effective disease control strategy

- ▶ EU compliant implementing legislation regarding food safety, veterinary and phytosanitary policies developed and effectively adopted according to the approximation plan
- ▶ Monitoring/surveillance programmes regarding food safety, veterinary and phytosanitary policies developed and effectively implemented
- ▶ Veterinary bio-security measures introduced
- ▶ Implementation of hygiene and safety standards in primary production strengthened.
- ▶ Phytosanitary Information System established
- ▶ Enforcement of hygiene and safety standards strengthened
- ▶ Veterinary, Phytosanitary sanitary/Food border control strengthened
- ▶ Capacities for plant health and control of plant production products strengthened
- ▶ Capacities for control of animal disease in the country strengthened